

FLEX CHALLENGE 2017

Dear Christian Family,

The time of the year is here again.....Our yearly appeal to our FLEX fund. The FLEX CHALLENGE, as you know, represents our need for funds to cover our printing costs. We have come a long way from the old style of printing and now rely on the digital press to do a better job as we print our tracts, coloring books, teaching materials, etc. As we have become more technical and computerized in the printing field, our costs also have risen. We turn to you, our Christian family, to help us fund the cost of printing God's message; the FLEX fund is used as well, to cover the shipping cost of our literature mailed throughout the Spanish speaking countries.

SAEM is blessed to have welcomed Daniel Black from Las Cruces, New Mexico into our work team. On September of 2016 – he became our official printer. It is now, a proper time to introduce Daniel to everyone of you...

Daniel Black lives in Las Cruces, New Mexico which is one hour away from SAEM. He has lived in Las Cruces most of his life and attends the Christian Church. He was recommended highly to be our printer by his pastor; Daniel has proven to be the wise decision made by our Board. Daniel travels by bus to our mission each time we have printing needs. This works well for him because Daniel is a servant of God and he uses his talents to that end. His servant's heart keeps him busy volunteering for individuals and in the church, and for the Christian camp in New Mexico. Daniel is computer literate and what an advantage that has been for us! We thank our Lord because He met our need for a printer; a printer that loves Him and serves with a heart pleasing to Him.

We close this year's appeal, with our display of messages from the U.S.A., and one from another country. These notes are from thankful people who receive our evangelizing literature and/or are encouraged by our news. We, at SAEM are thankful to Jesus Christ for allowing this ministry to continue. Our mission is about helping the people that go, seek, teach, and bring others to know the good news of Salvation. SAEM is looking forward to one more year of work; October will mark fifty-three years of printing God's message "one tract at a time."

Thank you for being our faithful supporters all these years!

In Christ, Bety Garcia, Staff, Board of Trustees and Volunteers.

"..the blessings you are to so many!.."

"..SAEM is touching a lot of people.."

"..The Lord truly works through this ministry.."
